Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

Claims 6 and 17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 6, there is no antecedent basis for “ said interfacing legs” . There is no antecedent basis for “ said first and second interfacing legs” .

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-4,22 and 26 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Jella 2005/0016694.

The edges of the trim pieces 32 move as the panels move. The phrase “ pinch resistant” is broad and subjective and easily met by Jella.

Claims 1,20,22,23,26 and 27 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Machill.

Art Unit: 3634

See the “ inner” surface 12 and “ outer” surface 14, with deformable portion 38 attached to the outer surface 14. The portions 38 form a “ decorative pattern” .

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

Claims 1-5,16,18-22,24-26 and 28 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Jella ‘ 694 in view of Lavigne.

Jella discloses door panels having decorative components that form patterns and attachment means for attaching the components, Figs. 8-14.

Lavigne discloses a trim attachment means which permits movement of the trim piece. It would have been obvious to modify Jella to have such a trim attachment means so that the trim could be attached and removed more easily.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 6 and 17 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
